District 19

Brethren

There are several important events taking place in our district during January. Please try to attend any that you can. I will be attending most and would be happy to travel with any who are interested.

There will be four installations during January. Two on Saturday the 7th, Springvale at 10:00 a.m. and Arundel at 2:00 p.m. There are also two on the 14th, St. Johns at 10 a.m. and Yorkshire at 1:00p.m.

The District Association meeting scheduled for January 26th will be a nonritual school of instruction. It will be held at York Lodge #22 at 7:00 p.m. It would behoove anyone to attend this school. Unlike many previous schools we will be exemplifying some of the non ritual functions and practices done by lodges in our district, a memorial service, draping and undraping the charter, lodge protocol, and a discussion of lodge bylaws, their management and possible revisions. For this lodges should bring a current copies of their bylaws.

This is an ambitious agenda so if we don't complete it and the interest is there, we will schedule another school later in the year.

Fraternally,

VW Dan Fink,

District Education Representative

From the East

Happy New Year Brethren,

I sincerely hope all of you, your friends and families had a wonderful holiday season! 2017 is now upon us and I am honored to be sitting in the East. I thank all the brethren for allowing me this opportunity, and with all of your help I will strive to continue with the great things our lodge does and add in some events all of us will enjoy.

I was raised in the York Lodge on the 200th anniversary of the lodge and now to be in the East on the 300th anniversary of the Grand Lodge of England makes me very proud to be a brother with all of you, all of the history of freemasonry and now the opportunity for us to do great things in the future. We have some great events coming up, our very successful Youth Charity Bike Run, Bikes For Books program and our 2nd Saturday Breakfasts. We will also be having a Steak & Lobster dinner before one of our stated meetings and ladies are invited to attend the dinner. An Adult Pinewood Derby Event. A Fellowship day and this is only the first half of the year!

I would like to thank all the officers for 2017, while the year has only just begun we have already started doing rehearsals and we have degree work coming up that is very exciting. We will be doing rehearsals every Monday night at 6 pm and everyone is welcome. Some of you may even get a phone call to help us with our degree work.

Work and live to serve others, to leave the world a little better than you found it and garner for yourself as much peace of mind as you can. This is happiness.
Bro David Sarnoff

I look forward to seeing you all in 2017.

Wor Mike Hludik
Master, York Lodge #22

From the Secretary

From the Secretary

Currently we have 10 Brothers who have not paid their 2016 dues. If I do not hear from them by next month I will be required to request that they be suspended for non-payment of dues. I should have contacted each of you who are in arrears in the past few days either by e-mail or by phone to make sure you are aware that you have not paid your dues.

This coming meeting is our annual meeting and I understand there will be a few questions put to the lodge membership. Some of the items to be discussed will be election of officers for next year, dues, and our new association with the local Cub scouts.

We hope to see you there.

*Thanks,
Bro. Paul Gregoire,
Secretary*

From the West

Brethren,

The view from the West has changed since the last time I sat here just a couple of years ago. Many of the faces in line are new or have at least have changed places, and it is refreshing to see this continuous change. But even with this change there is the underlying continuum which knits it all together and gives that comfortable feeling of familiarity and belonging. If you haven't been with us for awhile come to the next meeting and see what is changing and reexperience that which never changes.

We have many projects planned for the coming year so keep an eye open for the coming attractions. We have received a new application and have handed out several others which we expect to come back as applicants. We are seriously planning for a fellowship night and other ways to let the community know we are here and you could be here with us.

I feel the mood changing in our lodge. Take a look at the line, filled with new faces and younger ones at that. The announcement of the formation of a Square and Compasses Club which will sponsor more family events and a broader involvement for that younger portion of our membership which, let's face it, is the future of this lodge and Masonry.

Transition and change are in process but all still based on that firm bedrock foundation we and all Masons have come to cherish so well.

Be safe and well Brethern,

*Dan Fink,
Senior Warden*

From the South

Brethren,

It is with great anticipation I look forward to sitting in the South this year. It will be an eventful year.

From the Craft

A Thought...

We are at the time of the year when we not only celebrate the profundity of our faith but, also, tend to look back over the previous year. It is a time of reflection over where we have been, what we have done, and how well we have faced the challenges of our lives. In this process, we, with varying degrees of reality, look at who we think we are and should be, and what we think the reality has been. Our bright moments, and to ourselves, our not so bright moments. We are the hardest person in the world on ourselves. Sometimes this can be discouraging as we

There are a lot of people who feel this way in this world we live in today. And the emotions being generated, primarily fear, anger, and hate, are being manipulated by various groups in their pursuit of power. Reason has taken a back-seat to what I call the lemming effect. Whereby emotionally motivated people, seeking security and stability from their group membership, mindlessly follow their crowd as it is being driven in a certain direction. Without reason, this is easy to do. The thing which aids it the most is when the people do not have core supportive beliefs to hold onto and/or provide them direction. And, of course, the forces seeking to manipulate them, also seek to undermine these types of beliefs.

This is where groups such as ours comes into play. We have such a core set of beliefs based not just on belief but supported by millennia of reason, thought, and practice. And as we have since our organization's beginning, we have brought these beliefs into our communities along with the leadership which they support. And once again, the need is there for us to be a symbol, an aid, and a motivating force for our societies. In the current disruptions and distortions, and the coming ones, we can be a force, as we have before, to help our societies, to help those in need and afraid. To bring calm and stability where there is hate and anger. To help still the fears.

To us a Freemasons, this is our duty. To fill a need so desperately required in today's world.

Historian*
