Masonic Trivia

On his famous solo flight across the Atlantic, Charles Lindberg wore a square and compasses on his jacket as a good luck piece. He was a mason.

Richard E. Byrd and his pilot Bernt Balchen, both brothers, dropped Masonic flags over the North and South Poles. Brother Balchen also tossed his shrine fez on the South Pole.

The Master's Corner

Greetings Brethren,

I will keep this message from the East short and sweet. As the summer draws to an end I hope that all is well with everyone. The beginning of the Autumnal season will soon be with us and the work of the Lodge will resume in just a few weeks. I could not be prouder of the work of the officers and the high standards that they have set in the ritual work done so far this year. I look forward to seeing you all soon to continue our great work in introducing fine men to our Brotherhood. I again ask that all brothers in charge of mentoring candidates take great care in preparing them for their rituals. I hope that we have an excellent presentation when we have our annual inspection. If we perform half as well as we have thus far we should be in good stead. I would also like to remind all that we have a special guest speaker scheduled for our next stated meeting. The subject of her address is of great importance given the economic situation that our country and our own community are experiencing. If you are a business owner and have employees it is even more important that you attend this meeting. The message may be very beneficial to your employees' financial health. I will not say any more on this subject, so please attend if at all possible.

*Fraternally yours,
Wor. Phil Perez*

Letter to the Editor

The following is extracted from a letter to the editor of "The Cabletow" (Grand Lodge of the Philippines) from J. Bar-Ner, a Past Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Israel:

For the sake of the record, our Grand Lodge was erected and consecrated by the Grand Lodge of Scotland in the year 1953 and today members 57 lodges which work in the following languages.

Hebrew – The language of our Grand Lodge.

English, Arabic, French, German and Romanian.

We are also proud that in our jurisdiction, Brethren of all creeds, Jew, Gentile, Arab are to be found in the lodges. Further, in lodges where Brethren (or initiates) are of different Faiths the holy Books of the three great faiths – Old Testament, New Testament and the Koran are to be found on our altars.

Notice: Dues cards for 2012 are now available, those who have not paid for 2011 need to do so ASAP!
