The Craft's Noyse:

Composers who were Freemasons:

Frederick II (Frederick The Great)

Lived: 1712-1786. King of Prussia and certainly one of the most able and enlightened monarchs the world has seen. He encouraged economic reforms and did much to improve the life of his people and his country. Made a Mason on the night of August 14-15, 1738, at a special Lodge called at Brunswick, he was a skilled musician, composing material for the flute and other instruments, and an accomplished flautist. He studied music under some of the most outstanding musicians of the day, and music played an important part in his court. Many of his compositions are still recorded and performed.

Masonic Mentoring Program

Candidates petition Masonic Lodges to join our fraternity and we, as Masons, are charged with giving them knowledge about who we are; what we do; and the information about all of the secret parts of Free Masonry.

In the past, Masons have been unsure of what the candidate knows about us and what we can tell them as they travel on their journey toward light in Masonry. The Mentoring Program has been created to standardize what every candidate should know as he progresses through the three degrees needed to become a Master Mason and the resources available to all Masons to further their knowledge of the Craft.

The Mentoring Program supports the candidate in the four step process, as an Accepted Candidate; an Entered Apprentice, a Fellow Craft and as a Master Mason. He is assisted on his journey by a brother Master Mason who will mentor, guide and council him along the way. Both partners in this relationship will enjoy a strong bond with each other, their Lodge and all brothers in the fraternity.

We all benefit. So please support the York Lodge Mentoring Program by attending any of the education sessions to be given on the second Saturday of each month following breakfast.

*Thank you and take care,
W. Brian Ingalls*

Public Open House

The Grand Lodge has requested that Our Saturday October 19th Maine Masonic Lodges hold open house programs at their Lodges on Saturday October 19th.

York Lodge will be participating with a program from noon to 3:00 p.m.

This open house date has been widely promoted by Grand Lodge and we have been advertising it at the lodge as well. It would be an excellent opportunity to bring potential candidates as well as friends and neighbors to see our Lodge and learn about what we as Masons are and do.

Refreshments will be served.

So please plan to come by and meet the attendees and present yourself and a just and upright Mason.

Fraternally,

Dan Fink,

Junior Warden

The Master's Corner

Brethren:

Hope you all had a good summer. Seems it isn't over yet. It's time to pick the gavel back up and continue with the celebration & work of our 200th year @ York Lodge. I am looking straight ahead for the remainder of the year & attempting to maintain focus on serving the community, raising brothers, assisting widows & orphans and extending a helping hand supporting our own poor & distressed brethren. As a Mason I am often asked what attracted me to become a Mason? We all know the prescribed answer but it isn't entirely true. In order to obtain more wages is just not the case. Masons are paid with good company, fellowship, thanks & praise and with the good feeling of making a positive difference in the lives of friends & brothers, that's our paycheck. The latter part of the prescribed response rings true. To contribute to the relief of a distressed worthy brother Master Mason his Widow & Orphans. I wanted & needed to be a part of Masonry to really see what Masons were all about and here I am today humbled, & the Master of Your Lodge and well educated in what Masons really stand for. I want to take a minute to thank & commend the brethren who stand up, get recognized & make a motion to help a brother mason through charitable contributions from our lodge and remind everyone that it is what Masons do.

The open house on the 19th will be a special one. I am looking for ideas from you on what we want to accomplish via this useful tool. The grand lodge has provided banners, leaflets, pamphlets & DVD's to us for distribution to all interested candidates. The new Grand Lodge Master Mason Rookie program & Mentoring program is going to fit nicely into the masonic package @ the open house forum. We need to have a good showing on that Saturday and I'm sure most of the members would agree. Please keep in mind the Mega raffle and try and sell some tickets.

Please keep in mind the Mega raffle and try and sell some tickets.

Also please remember your veterans for their service to our country and our craft. If you love freedom thank a Veteran. Keep in mind our upcoming veterans celebration @ the grave coming up in November.

As usual brethren, keep up the good work of the craft and remember you are good men and Masons and we should all be proud of each other.

*Sincerely and Fraternally
Wor. Thomas Dudevoir*
