From the Secretary

I hope everyone has been enjoying their summer.

I am still receiving a few dues for 2016 and to those of you who have sent them in this summer, thanks.

Even in darkness we have been quite busy in our Lodge with Tuesday morning coffee get togethers, bus shelters repairs, and committee meetings. And thanks to VW Dan Fink and Wor Bruce Johnsen the outside painting of our Lodge has been completed.

To those of you who have had more chores than fun things going on this summer I trust you have made the chores fun too.

I look forward to hearing from anyone with questions or needs for additional information at any time.

When your contact information changes I really would very much like to hear from you so that I can keep our records up to date. This makes it much easier to find you when I have something I am required to pass on to you or to contact you for any reason.

*Thanks,
Bro. Paul Gregoire, Secretary*

From the West

Hello Brethren,

I hope the summer has been good you and your family. As we approach the month of September it is time for us to come out of darkness and learn more light. Our stated meeting this month is the 2nd Monday of September due to Labor Day. I would urge all of you to attend this meeting. We will be discussing our investments and we need everyone's input on this. Please try to make this meeting it is very important.

The following Monday will be our annual inspection in the Fellowcraft degree. I would like to see many of you at the lodge for this degree for our inspection and to also introduce yourself to our candidate. Show him what a great organization he is joining. We have many activities and fundraisers in the planning process and can use many hands to make light work of these.

Wednesday, August 24th a Fellowcraft degree is being put on by all the sitting Senior Wardens of the 19th Masonic District at Naval Lodge this will be an excellent degree and would like to see many of you there for this.

Every member of this Lodge brings valuable insight, skills, and history that helps broaden our knowledge, and strengthen our fellowship.

*Fraternally,
Mike Hludik,
Senior Warden*

From the South

Brethren,

As I have mentioned previously, I am deeply saddened by the fact that so few brothers show up for temple.

I realize that we have various reasons for becoming Freemasons, be it charitable work, historic input, ritual or just plain fellowship. These are all our personal reasons, and no one should ever feel obligated to attend.

However, it has been mentioned (several times) that some feel it has been so long since they attended lodge that one has forgotten the signs and duegards, and might have trouble working their way in.

Please tell me that is not the case! Because that is an excuse not a reason and you know full well that any brother will give gentle assistance if needed. We are all family.

Good things are happening here at your lodge. Don't miss the opportunity to partake.

If there is anything the officers can do to assist you in getting involved please let us know.

Fred Beatham,
Junior Warden

From the Craft

A Thought...

Again, as we come out of darkness into the light of a new year, as if awakening from a long winter's sleep, we look out upon the world around us. It is a world torn by strife and conflicts, wars and rumors of wars, both at home and abroad. At home, of a poisonous social and political atmosphere exacerbated by increasingly harsh economic conditions and a fragmenting society.

In this there are many people who are lost and afraid, searching for some degree of safety and security. Searching for someone and/or something they can trust. Someone or something they can rely and depend on.

This is where our duty and social obligation as Freemasons play a highly important role. Reaching back into the mists of time through thousands of years, our organization has, in ever changing contexts, played basically the same role. We have provided leadership and support to our communities, have been a symbol of integrity, ethics, and values. Our central set of values and ethics, such as duty, integrity, dedication to community service, belief in God and all this means, and so forth, have given us a central core of belief which throughout the tumult of the ages has sustained us and aided our efforts in our communities. This core has helped us survive as a group and continue the fulfillment of our duty to society. And when things have been especially bad, they have given us direction and something to hold onto through the tumult.

And this is perhaps why people look to us. For in us, they can maybe see the answer to their fears and doubts. Can see how our values and ideals have helped sustain us for innumerable generations through the strife and storm of ages. Have helped us provide the leadership, knowledge, and example which have so helped our societies, particularly in those not so good times

As Masons, the role engendered by our values, is our duty and organizational obligation to our community. It has always been one of the principle reasons we exist.

Fraternally,
Bro Donald Beane,
Historian
