Infamous or Strange Masons

The Reverend William Dodd was an English Freemason, who was born in 1729, and died in 1777. He was the first Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of England, in the year 1775. He delivered the oration at the dedication of Freemasons' Hall in London in 1776, He was also the author of many books and literary papers including "Beauties of Shakespeare." Weakness of character in money matters caused him to be tried for the crime of forgery. He had the effrontery to sign the name of Earl of Chesterfield, in the matter of 4200 pounds sterling. He was convicted of forgery and executed. The affair created great public commotion and attempts were made both by the City of London, and by 30,000 people who signed petitions to the King to commute the sentence. But to show how severe English Criminal law was at the time the sentence was carried out. It was one of the last public hanging in England. Not a good ending for a man of God and a Mason...

Master Mason Degree October 15th

York Lodge raised a new Master Mason at a special meeting on Monday, October 15th. Brother Lance Meyer was raised to the Sublime Degree with W Brian Ingalls and MW George Pulkkinen sharing duties in the East.

This night was made extra special when MW George Pulkkinen laid aside his Past Grand Masters apron and donned the lambskin he was presented on that very night 50 years ago.

The Master's Corner

Greeting from the East.

This month, October, we have completed the journey to Master Mason for one brother and have started another on his by initiating him as an Entered Apprentice. That is one of the purposes of a lodge, together with supporting Masonry, community service and caring for our brothers. There are many other things we do as Masons but, if we focus on these things, our stewardship of York Lodge will pass along a healthy lodge to the next group of stewards.

I do want to ask you to please make an attempt to attend our Veteran's Day Service. We have invited our sister lodges, Ocean and Arundel, Madonna Chapter OES, all of the brothers in the 19th District, the Widow's Sons, the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Chaplin, and the local American Legion Post. Please see the posting for the times and the details under Upcoming Events. I would be glad to see your face there, as a fellow veteran and as a brother.

I think I can see the Annual Meeting from here, and based on my discussions with the Senior Warden, he has assembled a fine suite of officers, whose stewardship will continue the strong lodge we have today. He has put a lot of thought into next year, our Bicentennial, and I encourage you to participate. You won't regret it and you just may realize why you started your Masonic journey.

Take care.
W. Brian Ingalls

Masonic Family Night
October 1st
