The Master's Corner

Greetings Everyone:

December is annual meeting month. Time for election of new officers and the changing of the guard. A time for fresh and new ideas.

At this time I would like to thank all of my officers for a job well done. I am very proud of the job that they did. They are a great asset to York Lodge. Also to the brethren that filled chairs on a moments notice. A wonderful resource. And to the brothers who worked so tirelessly around the lodge to make it a better place. Thank you my brothers.

Fraternally
Wor. Ray Brown

Candidate

It may not be termed "humor" because of its seriousness, yet there is a certain element of humor in an announcement which we ran across. Names and places are purposely omitted.

Dear Brother:

This is to announce that I expect to be a candidate for _____ at the coming communication of the Grand Lodge. It is needless to say that I have held all the subordinate offices that candidates for _____ have usually held. I could give the usual reasons why I should be given the office but they are rather trite. The real reason is of course that I want the "job." If you are not already pledged to another candidate, I would appreciate receiving your vote.

Fraternally

On the back of the card, which was distributed on the floor of the grand lodge, were the Masonic records of the "candidate," which included

Star: Patron four or five times

Treasurer Fireman's Association

State Rural Letter Carriers' Association

Note: He was not elected.

Reminder: "Add Fees are due"
