Masonic Trivia

When the great Obelisk of Alexandria (Cleopatra's Needle) was moved to New York in 1880, there were discovered certain emblems on the original foundation and pedestal. One is clearly a square, causing some to conclude that Masonry existed in ancient Egypt. This issue is still open to debate!

Andrew McNair, a Philadelphia Mason, rang the Liberty bell in Independence Hall of July 8, 1776 to call the people together to hearing the reading of the Declaration of Independence. The bell developed a crack when it was rung for the death of Chief Justice Marshall, Past Grand Master of Virginia.

In the 1800's several grand lodges established Masonic colleges. The most successful of which was in Hannibal, MS in 1847. Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, North Carolina, and Georgia all tried it but all were eventually closed due to lack of support!

The Master's Corner

Greetings to the brethren of York Lodge,

My time in the East will be coming to an end at our next stated meeting, the annual stated meeting for 2011. My mission this past year has been primarily one of stewardship. The preparations that still need to be accomplished before our bicentennial are many and varied. In my last communication I wrote about the necessary groundwork that was needed before those preparations could advance, namely that of the viability of our Lodge and of our facility becoming and remaining solvent going forward into the future. That work has been almost completed.

The fundraising that has been done this year toward that goal as well as towards our charitable donations has been absolutely stunning. I could not thank our brethren more. The ritual work this year has been phenomenal and I could not be prouder of my line officers. Although we lost two officers during the year everyone stepped right up to fill those gaps seamlessly.

I have written here previously of the blessings that I and the lodge have received this year by way of the labor of the active brethren. I couldn't have asked for a harder working lodge, I am honored and humbled by it. May the next master have as easy a time in motivating the brethren to do the required labor.

*Fraternally,
Wor. Phil Perez*

Welcome to Santa Fe

The Master of Sante Fe, New Mexico was quite humorous in extending a welcome to the Grand Lodge. He informed the Grand Lodge that the proper dress for all formal occasions was a Western shirt, bolo tie, levis and cowboy boots. To shave or not is optional, but a haircut will immediately establish you as a "furriner." They were asked not to make derogatory remarks about their architecture. A short length of rope hanging from one of the cottonwoods in the plaza was all that remained to the memory of a certain Mr. Gable. If occasion became necessary to ride one of the city buses, they should not do so without adequate provision, for a stranger a week previous had boarded a bus marked "Aqua Fria" and wound up three days later Ojo Caliente. In conclusion, they were notified if they got into difficulties with the police they should not call the mayor, for it would serve no useful purpose and might get them an additional 30 days!
